

JAMES FINKE

AUTHOR | CHRISTIAN APOLOGIST | SPEAKER

James Finke is a Christian author, apologist, and founder of Living Sacrifice Books. After more than 18 years managing large insurance portfolios in corporate America, he brings a risk analyst's eye to questions of faith. His work makes Christianity understandable to everyday readers and explores spiritual warfare, faith, and eternity through compelling fiction.

FOUNDER

Living Sacrifice Books

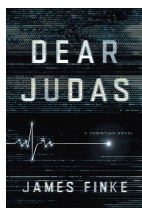

REACH

175,000+ social followers*

GLOBAL

Books in multiple languages; distributed in 15 countries*

FEATURED FICTION

DEAR JUDAS

Book 1 of the Dear Judas Series

A medical crisis sends atheist Tommy Finch searching for answers, where evidence, faith, and an unseen spiritual battle collide.

STILL JUDAS

Book 2 of the Dear Judas Series

Now a believer, Tommy faces the cost of silence when a coworker needs the truth he is afraid to share.

SUGGESTED INTERVIEW TOPICS

- Why apologetics should be accessible to everyday Christians
- The historical case for Jesus and the resurrection
- How to talk with skeptics with clarity and compassion
- Writing Christian fiction that entertains and challenges
- Spiritual warfare, faith, and eternity in Dear Judas
- Faith at work and the cost of delayed obedience

SHORT BIO

James Finke is a Christian author, apologist, and founder of Living Sacrifice Books. After more than 18 years managing insurance portfolios in corporate America, he writes accessible apologetics and Christian fiction that explores faith, spiritual warfare, and eternity. His books help everyday readers understand Christianity and follow its claims wherever the evidence leads.

BOOK JAMES FOR AN INTERVIEW

authorjamesfinke.com/contact/ | authorjamesfinke.com

*Publishing and social reach figures are stated in the author biography currently published on James Finke's website. Photo credit was not listed in the Media Library and is awaiting confirmation.